

Pyramid of Initiation

I Am the Light Focus of the Light

Material:

High quality, finely cut glass pyramid in plain shape
3/16 in. / 4 mm edge at the bottom

Crystalline energization and initiation

Side length on base: 2-3/4 in. / 70 mm

Height: 2-3/16 in / 55 mm

Spiritual Potential:

A pyramid of light will be erected in the entire room – further pyramids of light will manifest in its surrounding – the energy of initiation – Master Thot touches you with his wand and awakens the "I-AM-the-Light" within you – you may also connect with other Ascended Masters

You immerse in the holy vibration of initiation, touching you deeply inside and enabling the eternal Light of Divinity to re-emerge within you. Thot, the high teacher of wisdom, connects with you and allows you to experience a spiritual initiation advancing with every meditation and opening up new insights.

Possible Uses:

Put the pyramid underneath you, in front of you or at a suitable place above you in meditations. You may meditate in a lying or sitting position and connect with Thot, the Ascended Master and teacher of wisdom. Sink into stillness and breathe in the light ...

You can also energize rooms.

Excerpt from the Channelling by Thot:

And so Beloved, the light of the Highest shines within you. I am directing the ray into you. Hence, my ray, my energy of wisdom and knowledge of the highest light from Oneness, from the Eye of God, is immanent in this pyramid – a clear and focused ray. You would say it is like a laser – centred on your Divine Consciousness which is prepared to be awakened.

Those pyramids create mighty pyramids in the room and I, Thot, teacher of wisdom, clothe you in pure linen, in a priestly garment. I lay you on a golden barge directing the ray into you. My spirit shall unite with yours in this energy and you shall experience the energy of initiation.

So, I am touching your innermost core with my regent's wand and God's Light shall arise from within you and you shall recognize: I AM the Light.

You may call this pyramid: "I AM the Light". And so be it, as I AM the Light!

In the name of the Holy Trinity. Amen.
