Excerpt of the Channelling from Goddess Hathor with Lightlord Metatron:

We are giving you this key to connect the male and female principle – it elevates you beyond the energy of Yin/Yang. It extends to the supreme consciousness in which masculine and feminine merge in a chymical wedding. This is the living key, as beloved, especially the female principle has suffered suppression and violation for thousands of years; and now it is holding the key in its hands to bring peace, to reunite – the true, pure Oneness, the endless interflow – the chymical wedding on the spiritual, soul and material level. You know this term from the merge with the dual soul. However, this wedding also exists within yourself on all planes of your being, awakening divine bliss within you. Union bears bliss and everlasting inner joy, since it incessantly rekindles itself by receiving the Holy Spirit within you.

We, the Goddesses of Eternity, are giving you the golden key to the chymical wedding today. It is also able to connect you with your spiritual dual soul mate.
