Excerpt from the Channelling by Jesus Christ:

Beloved, this is Jesus Christ, my open heart, my divine mercy for you and this Earth. I kiss this beloved Earth. It shall be showered with those Love Pearls from my heart, like tears of joy. I put a tear of joy from my love into every heart. It awakens deep compassion for every living being, caring and sympathy for its path that it has walked upon without light, without love, without hope; a path into darkness. These Love Pearls open the pathway to my heart, little treasures, so full of love. Your heart and all rooms will be enchanted by this heavenly love. Surround yourself with such pearls in beauty and harmony. Just a glance and heaven kisses you – a kiss from heaven.

It opens the gate to a higher feeling of happiness within you. It kindles your lucky star in the aura and happiness will be poured onto you. It is like a rain of glittering sparks – you will be enveloped. They are like stars, tiny sparks, which fall from the sky, innumerable greetings from heaven, greetings from the heart, love and joy.

I cast my eyes upon every heart with infinite love and they unfold like a beautiful flower – a glance of my love, a tear from my heart. It is the magic of heavenly love, and so be it.
