Excerpt from the Channelling by Lightlord Metatron:

This is Metatron, the radiant one who stands before the Throne. An explosion of light in your heart is transforming you, creating a new universe in you. Let there be light – it is the enlightenment of your inner being. And just like a spiral nebula of creation it is emanating from you, embracing everything, yes, it is expanding and light shall prevail on Earth. The highest brightness of everyone coming into contact with this Merkaba will awaken and they will be a carrier of light for the New Age – the New Earth will unfold in their hearts. It is the birth of a New Earth in you.

Behold the beauty of the New Earth ... sparkling like a diamond throughout the universe: the return of light. This wonderful planet is like a precious diamond, a jewel. All Brothers and Sisters of Light are coming to send their blessings to this New Earth and to offer their gifts as she is like a magnet and so are you – you are a magnet for the light of the New Age – the shadows belong to the past now. Do not look back. Recognize your perfection.
