Excerpt from the Channelling by Mother Mary:

Thousands and thousands of such drops of grace rain upon you, beloved soul. Divine flowers bloom everywhere where these drops of grace reach the bottom of your soul. They sprout up in all your chakras and all your light bodies.

These drops of grace are so pure, so eternally lightful, so primordial, just like the primordial love of my heart for all of creation, just as I had dreamed creation at the very beginning of this universe in the cradle of my love, unified with the Heart of God.

Your soul radiates like a heavenly garden. Whatever may have happened before, even if war may have reigned at the bottom of your soul, it now blooms anew on the once fields of the dead. A new reality emerges. The old no longer exists. It is the past. The horrors of the night are behind you.

The deeper you engage with the light of my grace, the more you meditate in this frequency of grace, then the more you are unified with my love. I allow the well of my drops of grace to arise from the centre of your soul's garden, for my heavenly form has found a home and has initiated the garden of your soul. Then you are the giver of grace and provide for the thirsty souls from my fountain of grace.
