Excerpt from the Channelling by Mother Mary:

I imbue this wonderful Prism Sphere with the loving energies of the Rainbow Sphere. It brings this sphere to you. Rooms shall be suffused with heavenly radiance, fairytale-like, as if a little carried away and yet in the here and now. It is like in your childhood dreams: It touches you softly and tenderly, elevates you. The tenderness of my love sways you, warmly enwraps you and swirls around you – this gentle caress. You may regain your energy over and over again in these rooms by day and by night; as if enraptured, as if enchanted – fairytale-like and yet real. Slipping over, drifting over and yet being in the here and now both at the same time as one; and your heart will be moving, billowing. Yes, all your cells will be softly moving, vibrating, just like a leaf dancing in the wind. I will shower your rooms with flowers, the finest scents shall pervade them, peace and tranquility shall return to you:

Be peaceful, be completely calm. Everything is all right and everything will be fine. Life is a game. Life leads you to the goal. In this childlike splendour it is achieved.

My gift to you is dewdrops from heaven: a manifested dewdrop of my love. You may call this Prism Sphere: "Dewdrops of Mother Mary", and so be it.
